

Prevent Policy

Elworth Pre-school Group has a duty to keep children safe and to promote their welfare. As a provider it has 'due regard to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism' and therefore recognises its legal duties including those arising from the Prevent Duty.

'British Values' are intended to help everyone live in safe and welcoming communities where they feel they belong. The values are defined as :

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty and mutual respect
- Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

The Pre-school recognises that these values are universal aspirations for equality and as such are fundamental to helping children to become compassionate and considerate adults who form part of a fair and equal society.

The Pre-school staff will focus on Self-confidence and Self-awareness (as part of Personal, Social and Emotional Development) together with Understanding the World (People and Communities) to ensure that children:-

- Learn right from wrong
- Mix and share with other children
- Value one another's views
- Know about similarities and differences between themselves and others
- Challenge negative attitudes and stereotypes

Elworth Pre-school Group will be vigilant in:-

- assessing the risk of children being drawn into terrorism
- demonstrating that they are protecting children and young people from being drawn into terrorism by having robust safeguarding policies
- ensuring that their safeguarding arrangements take into account the policies and procedures of the Local Safeguarding Children Board
- making sure that staff have training that gives them the knowledge and confidence to identify children at risk of being drawn into terrorism, and to challenge extremist ideas which can be used to legitimise terrorism, by completing the online training course.nca.lt.com/Channel_General_Awareness/01/index.html

- ensuring children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet.
